COLOUR FUNd RUN

Missing from the calendar of last newsletter..... FUNdraising RUN to be enjoyed by all of our kids on Wednesday afternoon, November 28th. It will be held at the end of that school day (following the return from theatre outing for all Naroomans and Coindans). Hopefully you have sorted yourselves with the information of how to support the kids – in each of their Harmony Groups – in this venture. See Facebook posts from Eddie and from the parent rep for your Harmony Group.

Money raised will contribute to the conversation of The Space into its new iteration as our FAB LAB Space (seeking a suitable alternative name to STEAM Room).

Eddie will meet with parents seeking more information and or with questions on the afternoon of Nov 1st at 3:30pm. She will also prepare a short video clip that gives further insight into the run. Come and participate in this Community Conversation.

SCHOOL PHOTOGRAPHS

I was so thrilled to have you all participate in the festival, and totally stoked that you made the whole thing into a curriculum-linked project. For me, that is what real learning is about.

The enthusiasm and ownership that the students had was almost tangible and I believe that it is these kinds of experiences that set them up for life.

I have been wearing my friendship band and the mask (to the amusement of the staff here) and now that the festival is over, I intend to make good use of the bath salts and the soap.

The beeswax covers will need to wait a couple of weeks though because our kitchen is being renovated – but rest assured they'll come in very handy!

Thank you so much Karen, and please pass on my thanks and regards to all the students and the parents who assisted in making it happen. I hope that you'll consider joining us again next year!

Best wishes

Jenny

KIDS in the KITCHEN

Laura challenged the kids of Narooma and Coinda, using the inspiration of Play with your Food (available to be borrowed from our SAS library), to create models using a limited and defined number of ingredients.

It was also suggested that Coindans might like to prepare a model of a tarantula as preparation for the learning they are progressing with their Bakoolba buddies on Friday afternoons.

ASTRONOMY NIGHTS

A night for Bakoolbans and you, their parents, to come and enjoy exploring the night sky together using our fabulous telescopes – including our large you beaut one; recently collimated following Craig's trip with it to access expertise at UWA!

A night for Coindan families will be announced as soon as Friday night date decided.

TSHIRTS

Check out – on the admin verandah, in the P & C pinboard - the samples for Tshirts bearing our new school logo!

WHOLE SCHOOL MEETINGS

Celebrations are an integral part of our Whole of School Meetings each Wednesday morning. Please come and participate when you are able to do so.

The kids are thoughtful in their report writing and delightful in their presentation to community. You see and hear so much of what the kids are engaged in in each classroom and the specialist learning programs and appreciate their curiosity and interest as they question each other. Your part in supporting this is vital.

CONCERNS

Thankyou for bringing any concerns to our attention – to teachers, to me – according to what the appropriate channel is so that the relevant and appropriate processes can achieve the best outcome. We are in this together – Education through Community: Community through Education. Thankyou for trusting established community processes. Our restorative practices approach to resolving conflict and restoring relationships holds us true to our values and intention as community.

Please continue to bring CELEBRATIONS too!
